Third Sunday of Easter

Today in Children's Church, the children listened to the Gospel of John. They listened as Jesus said he chose us all to be his friends, and we should love others in the same way as he loves us. He said that we should all do as much as we can to help our friends, and that if we follow his teaching, we will be friends of Jesus.

We discussed that children in other parts of the world are the same as us, they also like to have friends that they play games with, friends who make them happy when they are sad, and help them when they are in trouble. Jesus asks us today to love others as he has loved us.

The children thought of ways they could be a good friend and how they will follow Jesus' example of love for all people no matter where they are in the world.
